

Hearing the evidence of the victim (investigation materials attached).

Accused: I know that he was kept in the cellar. I saw him in the morning. I asked about the cars. Then I left and didn't see him anymore.

Prosecutor: Who tortured him?

Accused: I didn't, and neither did my people.

Prosecutor: Why did you hand him over to another platoon?

Accused: I had sent three men on guard until the morning.

Prosecutor: Did "Gera" have anything to do with it?

Accused: No.

Prosecutor: This is "Bolgar's" evidence: money and all valuables go to "Gera" (the list and the things).

Accused: (keeps silence)

Chairman: Was there a list?

Accused: (keeps silence)

Chairman: It's all lies.

"Sedoi": Where did the info come from?

Accused: There was a local. He phoned.

"Sedoi": Who? What did he report?

Accused: In Mykolaivka, [REDACTED], a sportsman. He works as a krysha for local businesses. He is colonel's nephew.

"Sedoi": How did you find the victim?

Accused: Asked at the warehouse.

Chairman: Were you acting on "Bolgar's" orders?

Accused: It was my initiative. My version was that he was a sniper.

Chairman: What made you do that? Who did the analysis?

Accused: I made the decision myself.

Chairman: Did you know that they were smoking narcotics?
